It is only used for the purposes of the Acts administered by the SRO and for the purposes of Local Government's administration of the Local Government Act. Notice of acquisition of an interest in land

We would like to make your contact with the State Revenue Office (SRO) of Victoria more effective by helping you to understand and comply with the requirements to lodge a Notice of Acquisition of an Interest in Land.

This form is used by the SRO and municipal councils.

The majority of land in Victoria does not attract Land Tax, however, every person who acquires land in Victoria must give notice to the Victorian Registrar of Titles. This must be done within one month of acquiring the land.

Ensure that all details are accurately recorded. The SRO can then process your notice immediately.

Part 1 – Transferor (Seller)

Names

Include all parties that were registered on title. State surname, first name and other given names in full.

If a trust is involved, state the full legal name of the trust and the name(s) of the trustee(s). For example, John Smith as trustee for the John Smith Family 1976 Trust.

If a company is involved, state the full legal name of the company and its Australian Company Number (ACN) or Australian Business Number (ABN)

Address

Supply the address of the transferor at the time of transfer.

Supply the future address for correspondence of the transferor.

If there is insufficient space for the names and addresses, please attach a list.

Part 2 – Transferee (Buyer)

Names

Include all parties to be registered on title. State surname, first name and other given names in full.

If a trust is involved, state the full legal name of the trust and the name(s) of the trustee(s). For example, John Smith as trustee for the John Smith Family 1976 Trust.

If a company is involved, state the full legal name of the company and its Australian Company Number (ACN) or Australian Business Number (ABN).

If more than one transferee is involved and share holdings are not equal, include percentage share against each holding. For example, Brown 30 per cent, Smith 45 per cent, Nguyen 25 per cent.

Date of birth

Provide date of birth for each buyer who is an individual person, not a company/trust.

Address at time of transfer

Supply the address of the transferee at the time of transfer. Address at the time of transfer is required to ensure correct matching of data.

Principal place of residence

If the property you are acquiring will be your principal place of residence, indicate 'Yes', otherwise indicate 'No'.

A principal place of residence exemption is available to natural persons for the land on which their family home is situated. This means that an individual is not required to pay land tax if their principal place of residence is the only land they own in Victoria. Any jointly owned land which is the principal residence of any of the individual joint owners is also exempt from land tax. If you run a business from your principal place of residence you may be excluded from receiving this exemption.

The principal place of residence exemption is available for only one residence regardless of where it is located in Australia. This exemption is not available for companies, organisations, associations or trusts.

Address for future correspondence

Supply details of the future address. If there is insufficient space for the names and addresses, please attach a list
